If this product comes into contact with dressings, trim the dressing e.g. cotton bandage or clean cloth to remove the cream. The cream should then be washed away with soap and water.

If you experience blurred vision or other visual impairment while using Trimovate, speak to your doctor straight away.

If your infection worsens at any time, speak to your doctor.

If you accidentally get Trimovate in your eyes, wash them well with water. If Trimovate comes into contact with your mouth or any other mucous membranes, wash them well with water.

Take care when applying Trimovate to the eyelids. A dressing must be used to avoid damage to the eye and any contact with the eyes should be avoided.

If you are allergic to the cream or need other treatment.

Skin becomes swollen during treatment. You may need other treatment.

Do not use more than the amount prescribed for you.

Keep the cream out of the reach of children.

If you use Trimovate regularly make sure you talk to your doctor or pharmacist at least every 6 months.

If you take Trimovate and then develop a viral infection, such as cold sores, herpes or chickenpox, you may need other treatment.

If you are pregnant or breast-feeding, think you may be pregnant or you are planning to have a baby, speak to your doctor or pharmacist before using Trimovate.

Trimovate is used in adults, the elderly, children and infants to help reduce the redness and itchiness of the skin.

Trimovate contains the following active substances: calcium oxytetracycline, an antibiotic, 30 mg /g; nystatin, an antifungal, 100,000 units /g.

Calcium oxytetracycline (an antibiotic) and nystatin (an antifungal) are combined in a cream to help reduce redness and irritation of the skin.

Trimovate is a corticosteroid-based antifungal and antibiotic cream. It helps to reduce redness, swelling and irritation of the skin.

Calcium oxytetracycline (an antibiotic) and nystatin (an antifungal) are combined in a cream to help reduce redness and irritation of the skin.

Trimovate is used in adults, the elderly, children and infants to help reduce the redness and itchiness of the skin.

Trimovate is used in adults, the elderly, children and infants to help reduce the redness and itchiness of the skin.

Trimovate is used in adults, the elderly, children and infants to help reduce the redness and itchiness of the skin.