Oxycodone Injection has been shown to be effective in the management of severe pain requiring the use of a strong opioid. It is indicated in adults for the treatment of severe pain, including pain following surgery. This medicine can affect your ability to drive as it may make you sleepy or dizzy. It is an offence to drive if this medicine affects you.

You should avoid drinking grapefruit juice during your treatment with Oxycodone Injection.

Pregnancy and breast-feeding

If you are pregnant or breast-feeding, think you may be pregnant or planning to have a baby, talk to your doctor before taking this medicine.

You should avoid drinking alcohol while you are taking Oxycodone Injection. It is recommended not to drink alcohol while you are taking Oxycodone Injection with food, drink and other medicines, including those bought without a prescription, those recommended by your doctor or available in supermarkets. The medicine has been prescribed to help you to relieve moderate to severe pain. It may affect the way other medicines work and vice versa.

The following information is intended for healthcare professionals only: requesting changes to the product.

Contraindications

Oxycodone Injection is contraindicated in adults for the treatment of moderate pain. It is also contraindicated in adults under the age of 18 years for moderate pain requiring the use of a strong opioid. This may be life-threatening. Because of this, Oxycodone should be used with caution in elderly patients.

Oxycodone Injection contains the active ingredient oxycodone which is a medicine to treat moderate to severe pain. It can be harmful if you take too much. If you think you have taken too much Oxycodone Injection, contact your doctor or local hospital as soon as possible.

Oxycodone Injection should not be used in children or adolescents under the age of 18 years. Oxycodone Injection should not be used in children under the age of 12 years or in adolescents under the age of 16 years.

The information in this leaflet may be useful to friends or relatives caring for you. Please give them this information too. It may be helpful to keep this leaflet with the medicine in case they need to read it again. If you have any further questions, ask your doctor or pharmacist. This does not affect your ability to drive while you are taking this medicine. Oxycodone should not be used in children under the age of 12 years or in adolescents under the age of 16 years.

There is no general statement that applies to all medicines for pain. In particular, the use of any medicine for pain is subject to medical judgment.

Oxycodone Injection should not be used in children under the age of 12 years or in adolescents under the age of 16 years. Oxycodone Injection should not be used in children under the age of 12 years or in adolescents under the age of 16 years.

The following information is intended for healthcare professionals only: requesting changes to the product.
Oxycodone hydrochloride 10 mg/ml solution for injection or infusion

Stability

From a microbiological point of view, the product should be used immediately. If not used immediately, the product should be used in accordance with local regulations. If this happens to you.

Shelf life

Oxycodone Injection demonstrated for 24 hours at 25°C. Shelf life: 24 hours at 25°C.

Incompatibilities

Prochlorperazine is chemically incompatible with Oxycodone Injection. Do not administer subcutaneously as an infusion. To occur in mixtures with Oxycodone Injection at no sign of precipitation over a period of 24 hours undiluted or diluted with water for injections, shows when mixed with Oxycodone Injection, either Cyclizine at concentrations of 3 mg/ml or less, Oxycodone Hydrochloride 10 mg/ml solution for injection or infusion.

Uncommon side effects

• Sweating.
• Rash.

Common side effects

• Itchy skin.
• Dizziness.

Very common side effects

• Sweating.
• Rash.

Side effects

All medicines can cause allergic reactions, although not everybody gets them. If you have been given an overdose may feel sedated or drowsy for 23 hours. You may experience hallucinations, an increased sensitivity to pain. Data from clinical trials do not show a difference in the way that Oxycodone Injection looks like and contains of the packs and labelling of the medicine for children. Children and adolescents under 18 years of age should not be given this medicine.

What Oxycodone Injection looks like and contains of the packs and labelling of the medicine for children. Children and adolescents under 18 years of age should not be given this medicine.

The following information is intended for healthcare professionals only:

Oxycodone Hydrochloride 10 mg/ml solution for injection or infusion

Incompatibilities

Uncommon side effects

• Sweating.
• Rash.

Common side effects

• Itchy skin.
• Dizziness.

Very common side effects

• Sweating.
• Rash.

Side effects

All medicines can cause allergic reactions, although not everybody gets them. If you have been given an overdose may feel sedated or drowsy for 23 hours. You may experience hallucinations, an increased sensitivity to pain. Data from clinical trials do not show a difference in the way that Oxycodone Injection looks like and contains of the packs and labelling of the medicine for children. Children and adolescents under 18 years of age should not be given this medicine.

The following information is intended for healthcare professionals only:

Oxycodone Hydrochloride 10 mg/ml solution for injection or infusion

Incompatibilities

Uncommon side effects

• Sweating.
• Rash.

Common side effects

• Itchy skin.
• Dizziness.

Very common side effects

• Sweating.
• Rash.

Side effects

All medicines can cause allergic reactions, although not everybody gets them. If you have been given an overdose may feel sedated or drowsy for 23 hours. You may experience hallucinations, an increased sensitivity to pain. Data from clinical trials do not show a difference in the way that Oxycodone Injection looks like and contains of the packs and labelling of the medicine for children. Children and adolescents under 18 years of age should not be given this medicine.

The following information is intended for healthcare professionals only: